Special Evening Event Registration

On Wednesday evening, June 28, 2012, the executive board would like to invite you to a special evening at the Texas Prison Museum. This is a LCCAA and guests private access evening to the museum with private tours by Jim Willett (Museum Director and author of "Warden"). Jim will give guests a special insight into some of the interesting history of the prison system and the Walls Unit where he was warden. The first 50 students to register will also receive an autographed copy of the book "Warden". The tour will be especially interesting for those choosing to take advantage of the law enforcement only tour of the Walls Unit Friday after the conference.

Finger food and beverages will be served during the event, but alcohol is not allowed at this facility.

Please fill out this form, if you plan on attending any of the events on this page:
